The Role of the Holy Spirit

John 15:26 to 16:33

May 29, 2016

Pastor Ken Ingold

Theme: In John 14:16 and 26, Jesus introduced the Holy Spirit to His disciples. Here in John 15:26-16:33, in three additional statements, Jesus outlines the role of the Holy Spirit. His role is critical in our lives, as He provides strength in trials, judgment of sin, and personal guidance. With the Holy Spirit, we can experience our grief turning to joy, our doubt turning to faith, and our fear turning to peace.

Outline

1. The First Paraclete Statement (John 14:16)
2. The Second Paraclete Statement (John 14:26)
3. The Third Paraclete Statement: Witness in Persecution (John 15:26-16:4)

4. The Fourth Paraclete Statement: Counselor and Judge (John 16:5-11)
5. The Fifth Paraclete Statement: Authentic Guide (John 16:12-15)
- a. Foretelling – Predicting the Future
  - b. Forthtelling – Making Public
6. Grief Turns to Joy (John 16:16-22)
7. Doubt Turns to Faith (John 16:23-30)
8. Fear Turns to Peace (John 16:31-33)

Takeaway:

1. In this world you will have trials.
2. Let the Spirit of truth guide you into all truth.
3. Know Jesus alone can turn your grief to joy.
4. Trust the Lord for peace in a troubling world.
